

Beacon Hill International School Uniform Policy

Since 1997, Beacon Hill has a mandatory school uniform policy. The basic colors of the school uniform are white, navy blue, and green. All students are expected to wear plain white, navy, or green shirts and navy blue slacks, skirts, shorts, or jumpers (no jeans) five days a week. Our school T-shirt and sweatshirt are acceptable, as well. The uniform consists of:

Girls: White, green, or navy blouse, turtleneck, or shirt
Beacon Hill T-shirt or sweatshirt
Navy blue slacks, skirt, jumper, or shorts (no jeans) or
Kirk Plaid jumper or skirt (available at The Uniform Store)
Mayfair blue or green cardigan sweater (available at The Uniform Store)
White, navy, or Mayfair blue socks

Boys: White, navy, or green shirt or turtleneck
Beacon Hill T-shirt or sweatshirt
Navy blue slacks or shorts (No jeans)
Mayfair blue or green sweater (available at The Uniform Store)
White, navy, or Mayfair blue socks (available at The Uniform Store)

Free Dress Days:

Certain days during the year will be designated as “Free Dress Days.” Those will be special non-uniform days and will be announced at the beginning of the month. Aside from those specially announced days each student is expected to come to school wearing a clean uniform every day.

Important to note:

- Jeans are not allowed
- Students may not wear shirts with logos
- Students may wear T-shirts or sweatshirts with a Beacon Hill logo
- Clothes that have stripes or accent designs with other colors are not uniform
- Hats may not be worn in the building
- Girls may not wear outfits with bare mid-drifts
- Tank-tops or spaghetti-straps are not allowed
- Students should wear appropriate clothes on days when the class is having physical education (for example, girls should wear pants and all children should have shoes that support active activities)
- Layers of clothes (for example, if a child wears several shirts or sweaters layered on top of each other) should all conform to uniform standards
